WED, FRI 10:30am - 5:30pm THURS, SAT, SUN 9am - 4pm

In this training we will build on what we explored in Module 1.

We will dive into the layers of sound and you will take off from your new jumping point. As always, we will blend the science of sound with the experiential deep, listening practices. First time participants are most welcome as this is an integrative process and everyone will be starting out from where they are.
